Test Bank for Child Abuse and Neglect in Canada - A Guide for Mandatory Reporters CDN 1st Tufford

ccess Complete Test Bank for Child Abuse and Neglect in Canada - A Guide for Mandatory Reporters CDN 1st Tuffo

Chapter 2 Quiz

Mandatory Reporting of Child Abuse and Neglect in Northern Canada

1. Sixty percent of the Canadian population reside in cities and towns proximal to the United States border.

True or False

2. Indigenous persons regard the north as home and a place to be respected.

True or False

3. Women are often excluded from higher paying occupations in the north in favour of service occupations.

True or False

4. The challenges for mandatory reporters are intensified in the north.

True or False

5. It is easier for mandatory reporters to maintain low visibility in the north as opposed to communities in the geographic south.

True or False

6. Most mandatory reporters are educated in the challenges of living and working in northern Canada.

True or False

7. Accessing clients' existing support networks can provide strength to clients struggling with parenting concerns.

True or False

8. It is important for mandatory reporters to accept some degree of informality in one's relationship with clients in the north.

True or False

9. Mandatory reporters may benefit from formal training in working with Indigenous people.

True or False

ccess Complete Test Bank for Child Abuse and Neglect in Canada - A Guide for Mandatory Reporters CDN 1st Tuffo

10. Limiting contact with others and avoiding social functions are considered good coping strategies when working in northern Canada.

True or False

ccess Complete Test Bank for Child Abuse and Neglect in Canada - A Guide for Mandatory Reporters CDN 1st Tuffo