Test Bank for Research Methods and Design in Sport Management 2nd Andrew

Access Complete Test Bank for Research Methods and Design in Sport Management 2nd Andrew

1. According to the American Psychological Association (APA), which of the following is NOT one of the five ethical principles?

a. fidelity and responsibility

b. integrity

*c. confidentiality

d. justice

2. _____ is the legal principle, which requires researchers to have participants' consent.

*a. informed consent

b. contract

c. institutional review board

d. plagiarism

3. Prior to conducting a research project, researchers should ensure that their study conforms to common ethical standards.

*a. True
b. False

4. One of the main issues in research ethics is to only protect human subjects.

a. True
*b. False

5. An institutional review board (IRB) oversees all research that involves human subjects.

*a. True
b. False

6. Researchers can obtain approval from an IRB for their research plans after collecting data.

a. True
*b. False

7. Researchers do not need to report the results that fail to support the hypothesis.

a. True
*b. False

Access Complete Test Bank for Research Methods and Design in Sport Management 2nd Andrew

8. Publishing the same manuscript in two journals is considered academic dishonesty.

*a. True
b. False

9. The notion of non-maleficence indicates that any risks associated with research participants have to be minimized as much as possible.

*a. True
b. False

10. Researchers can use study participants for their exclusive benefits.

a. True
*b. False

11. Fabricating or falsifying data can result in forfeiting the data and severe penalties.

*a. True
b. False

12. If necessary, researchers can exercise power to seek consent for research participation from individuals.

a. True
*b. False

13. Researchers should not describe any benefits (e.g., money, vouchers) in participating in a study in informed consent.

a. True
*b. False

14. Researchers can use the sentences or paragraphs from their own published article in other manuscripts without citing the work.

a. True
*b. False

15. _____ refers to using ideas, writings, or drawings of others without any citations.

Correct Answer(s):
a. Plagiarism

Access Complete Test Bank for Research Methods and Design in Sport Management 2nd Andrew